

The Soul of Uzbekistan

10 Days/10 Nights

Discover the essence of Uzbekistan on this well-balanced journey through its most iconic cities and lesser-known gems. From the historic charm of Samarkand and Bukhara to the ancient fortresses of Khorezm and the traditions of the Fergana Valley, this tour offers a deep cultural experience.

You'll explore majestic architecture, bustling bazaars, and remote desert landscapes and even spend a night in a yurt under the stars. An ideal itinerary for travelers who want to truly feel the spirit and soul of the Silk Road.

Day 1. Home town – Tashkent

After arrival and passport control, our guide and driver will meet you at the airport exit. Transfer to the hotel, breakfast and rest after the flight.

We start with the old part of the city: Visit the Khast Imam Complex, including Kaffal Shashi Mausoleum, Barak Khan Madrassah, Friday Mosque, and the Muyi Muborak Madrassah, home to the famous Quran of Caliph Osman (7th century).

Next, a walk through the lively and colorful Chorsu Bazaar, one of the oldest markets in Tashkent, known for its local crafts, spices, and traditional atmosphere.

Continue with the modern part of Tashkent: Ride the Tashkent Metro, known for its Soviet-era architecture. Explore Independence Square, Amir Temur Square, Theatre Square, and the Monument of Courage, dedicated to the 1966 earthquake.

Overnight at the hotel.

Day 2. Tashkent – Kokand – Rishtan – Fergana

Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer to the railway station. Train from Tashkent to Kokand: 08:10 – 12:28.

In Kokand, we visit the Khudoyar Khan Palace (19th century) with its beautiful façade and towers. Inside, you'll find historical jewelry, samovars, and musical instruments.

Next, we visit the Jami Mosque, with its 22-meter-high minaret and 98 wooden columns, supporting a ceiling decorated with traditional valley patterns.

We also walk to the Modari Khan Mausoleum, built in 1825 - the resting place of the mother of Omar Khan.

After Kokand, we continue to Rishtan, the heart of Uzbek ceramics. For over 700 years, artisans here have been creating blue pottery using the local red clay and mineral-based paints.

We visit the workshop of Rustam Usmanov, one of the most famous ceramic masters in the region. Transfer to Fergana.

Overnight in Fergana.

Day 3. Fergana – Andijan – Margilan – Tashkent (170km 3h30)

Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, we head to Andijan, one of the oldest cities in the Fergana Valley. Once destroyed by the Mongols and later rebuilt, it became a major stop on the Silk Road and a key trading center.

We visit the Andijan Bazaar, one of the liveliest in the region, and take a short walk through Babur Park, named after the founder of the Mughal dynasty. In the park, there is a small mausoleum containing a symbolic handful of soil from Babur's grave. We also visit the Juma Mosque, built in the late 19th century.

Next, we drive to Margilan, famous for its silk production. Here we visit the Yodgorlik Silk Factory, where visitors can see how traditional "ikat" fabrics are made by hand.

In the late afternoon, transfer to Margilan railway station. Train to Tashkent: 16:41 – 21:48.

Arrival in Tashkent, transfer to the hotel. Overnight in Tashkent.

Day 4. Tashkent – Samarkand

Breakfast/lunch box. Transfer to the railway station. Train from Tashkent to Samarkand: 07:21 – 09:39.

Upon arrival, we start the city tour. First, we visit the Gur-Emir Mausoleum, then continue to Registan Square, the historic center of Samarkand. We walk along Islam Karimov Street to the Bibi-Khanum Mosque, followed by a visit to the lively Siab Bazaar.

In the afternoon, we visit the Ulugbek Observatory, the Afrasiab Museum, and the Shakhi-Zinda necropolis, a sacred pilgrimage site.

Overnight in Samarkand.

Day 5. Samarkand – Shakhrisabz – Bukhara (280km 4-5h)

Breakfast at the hotel. Morning departure to Shakhrisabz, the hometown of Tamerlane.

Upon arrival, we start the city tour. We visit the Ak-Saray Palace ruins, built by Tamerlane in the 14th century, the Dorut Tilavat complex with the Kok-Gumbaz Mosque, and the Dorus Saodat complex, where members of Tamerlane's family are buried.

In the afternoon, we continue by road to Bukhara. Arrival in Bukhara, transfer to the hotel.

Overnight in Bukhara.

Day 6. Bukhara

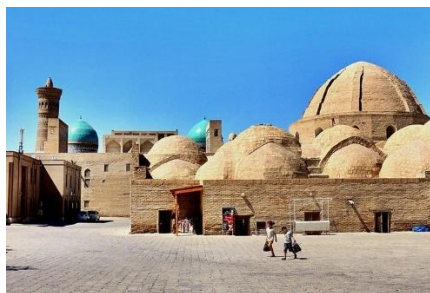

Breakfast at the hotel. We start the city tour with a visit to the Ismail Samani Mausoleum, the Chashma-Ayub Mausoleum, and the Bolo-Khauz complex with its mosque, minaret, and reflecting pool.

Next, we visit the Ark Fortress, the former royal residence of Bukhara's emirs.

We continue to the Poi-Kalon complex, including the Kalon Minaret, Kalon Mosque, and Miri-Arab Madrassah. Along the way, we also see other old madrassahs and the traditional trading domes, where merchants once sold jewelry, hats, and exchanged currency.

The tour ends at Lyabi-Hauz Square, surrounded by historical madrassahs, a reflecting pool, and the underground Magok-i-Attari Mosque.

Overnight at the hotel.

Day 7. Bukhara

Breakfast at the hotel. We begin the day with a visit to Chor-Bakr Necropolis, one of the most peaceful and spiritual places near Bukhara. This ancient burial complex is often called the "City of the Dead" and is known for its calm and sacred atmosphere.

Next, we visit the Memorial Complex of Bahauddin Naqshband, a major pilgrimage site and the resting place of the founder of the Naqshbandi Sufi order.

We end the day with a visit to the Sitorai Mokhi-Khosa Palace, the former summer residence of the last Emir of Bukhara. The architecture reflects a mix of Eastern luxury and European elegance.

In the evening, we will attend a traditional folklore show with dinner at Nodir Devon Begi Madrassah, set in the atmospheric courtyard of a 17th-century monument.

Overnight at the hotel.

Day 8. Bukhara – Khiva (451 km 7-8h)

Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, we depart for Khiva, driving through the Kyzylkum Desert. On the way, we stop to enjoy the view of the Amu Darya River.

Arrival in Khiva in the late afternoon. Free time to rest at the hotel.

Overnight in Khiva.

Day 9. Khiva

Breakfast at the hotel. We start our sightseeing tour of Khiva from the main gate of the old town Ota Darvoza. We visit the Muhammad Amin Khan Madrassah and the iconic Kalta Minor Minaret, which was planned to be the tallest in Central Asia but remained unfinished.

Next, we explore the Said Alauddin Mausoleum, one of the oldest monuments in Ichan-Kala, followed by the Kunya Ark Citadel, the former residence of Khiva's khans.

The tour continues with the Muhammad Rahim Khan Madrassah and the Juma Mosque, known for its impressive forest of carved wooden columns.

In the afternoon, we visit the Islam Khodja Minaret and Madrassah, a symbol of Khiva, and the Tash-Khauli Palace, famous for its richly decorated reception halls.

We end the tour at the Pahlavan Mahmud Mausoleum, the spiritual heart of the city.

Overnight at the hotel.

Day 10. Khiva – Home town

Breakfast/Lunch box. Transfer to Urgench Airport for the return flight to home.
